DETAILED ACTION

Status of the Application

Claims 1-48 are pending.

Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
 - I. Claims 1-5, 7-11, drawn to the polypeptide labeled rGAL-12, classified in class 435, subclass 208.
 - II. Claims 13-17, 19-23, drawn to the polypeptide labeled rGAL-12R, classified in class 435, subclass 208.
 - III. Claims 25-29, 31-35, drawn to a polypeptide labeled rGAL-25, classified in class 435, subclass 208.
 - IV. Claims 37-41, 43-47, drawn to a polypeptide labeled rGAL-25R, classified in class 435, subclass 208.
 - V. Claims 6 and 12, drawn to a polynucleotide encoding the polypeptide labeled rGAL-12, classified in class 536, subclass 23.2.
 - VI. Claims 18 and 24, drawn to a polynucleotide encoding the polypeptide labeled rGAL-12R, classified in class 536, subclass 23.2.
 - VII. Claims 30 and 36, drawn to a polynucleotide encoding a polypeptide labeled rGAL-25, classified in class 536, subclass 23.2.
 - VIII. Claims 42 and 48, drawn to a polynucleotide encoding a polypeptide labeled rGAL-25R, classified in class 536, subclass 23.2.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

2. Groups I-VIII each comprise a chemically unrelated structure capable of separate manufacture, use, and effect. The nucleic acids of Groups V-VIII comprise purine and pyrimidine units, and the proteins of Groups I-IV comprise amino acids, thus being structurally distinct molecules. The nucleic acids of Groups V-VIII have unrelated nucleic acid sequences and the proteins of Groups I-IV have unrelated amino acid sequences. The nucleic acids of Groups V-VIII have other uses besides encoding the proteins of Groups V-VIII, such as a hybridization probe or in gene therapy. Further, the proteins of Groups I-IV can be prepared by processes which are materially different from recombinant expression of the nucleic acids of Groups V-VIII, such as by chemical synthesis, or by isolation and purification from natural sources.

3. As set forth in MPEP § 803, the criteria for a proper restriction between patentably distinct inventions requires that the inventions must be independent or distinct as claimed, and a search of all the inventions would impose a serious burden on the examiner. Groups I-VIII have been shown to be independent or distinct, for the reasons set forth above. MPEP § 803 also indicates that a serious burden on the examiner may be prima facie shown if the Examiner shows by appropriate explanation either separate classification, separate status in the art, or a different field of search. The inventions of Groups I-VIII have acquired a separate status in the art because of their recognized divergent subject matter, as shown by their different classification. In addition, a search of all the inventions would require a separate sequence search, patented/non-patented literature search and a class/subclass search. These searches are not all co- extensive. Therefore a comprehensive examination of all groups would impose an undue burden on the Examiner. Thus, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

4. Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement can be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

5. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a petition under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).

6. Information regarding the status of an application may be obtained from the Patent Application Information Retrieval (PAIR) system. Status information for published applications may be obtained from either Private PAIR or Public PAIR. Status information for unpublished applications is available through Private PAIR only.
